Teacher: Eileen Kosasih

Eileen Kosasih is a multifaceted visual artist, musician, and whiskey specialist based in Calgary, Canada, with a passion for integrating art and music in education and appreciation. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Music in Violin Performance, a pre-collegiate piano diploma, a Master of Music in Orchestral Conducting, and a Master of Art in Fine and Decorative Art and Design. She also holds Level III certification in Spirits from the Wine and Spirits Education Trust. Eileen has led workshops across Alberta and BC, collaborated with organizations such as the Instrumental Society Calgary, and has been a Guest Artist for institutions like the Banff Centre and Calgary schools. Her art has been represented by galleries including Apik Fine Art and Art Spot, and she regularly hosts whiskey tastings for local businesses and private events. As a musician, Eileen has held numerous roles, including Principal Second Violin for the Symphony of the Kootenays and Principal Pianist for the Calgary Boys' Choir and Mount Royal Conservatory's Arietta Choir, while contributing extensively to the local music scene as a freelance performer.
